

Member Benefits– Alliance Membership

Alliance Peer Exchange Groups

Peer participants exchange challenges and solutions via email discussion groups, webinars and teleconferences, and in-person meetings, offering leaders the rare opportunity to seek out specialized advice from peers throughout the country.

<http://alliance1.org/networking/apex>

Commitments of High Impact Nonprofits Framework

The Alliance provides tools to assess and benchmark member's current levels of competency in each of the Commitments and provides programming to elevate their proficiency in the specific areas.

<http://alliance1.org/commitments/about>

Conferences & Training

AFC promotes learning and networking through many conferences, meeting, retreats, webinars and teleconferences designed to help you take your career and organization to the next level.

<http://alliance1.org/networking>

PurchasingPoint

Through the PurchasingPoint program, Alliance members have access to discounts on a vast range of products and services, including office supplies, shipping, furniture, car rentals, and cell phones .

<http://alliance1.org/alliance/purchasingpoint-program>

Resource Development Solutions

AFC is committed to helping its members build their fund development capacity by offering a variety of training, networking, information, funding alerts and mentoring services.

<http://alliance1.org/rds/about>

Severson National Information Center

The Severson Center librarians and online databases (EBSCO host & DocuShare) can help members improve performance by connecting staff to the latest resources, information, and publications in the non-profit field. <http://alliance1.org/severson>

Your MACC Membership includes membership in the Alliance for Strong Families and Communities national organization.

Learn more about this member benefit

www.mcwmn.org/Membership/Benefits/ASFCMembership.aspx

Highlights of Member Benefits

MACC members get access to AFC with membership
Learn more, visit www.alliance1.org

About the Alliance for Strong Families and Communities

The Alliance works for transformational change by representing and supporting its network of hundreds of nonprofit human-serving organizations across North America as they translate knowledge into best practices that improve their communities.